Upcoming Events

Olive Garden family nights for March 16-18 –owner has not gotten back to Kim, and owner Rich is in poor health, so we will take this off the fundraising list.

Old Business

Trivia night made about $1,000 more than last year. Kudos to Janet, Kim, Diane, and everyone else who helped. 40 gift baskets with gift cards. Suggestion to put in recognition to Rich from Olive Garden in Bloomingdale for complete food donation. Suggestion to give band and choir photo with a thank you. Gift Card for a massage. Julie Kanturek moved to allocate $100 for a gift card for a Bass Pro Shop/Cabellas since he likes to fish and seconded by Diane Lantz for appreciation for his donation from the Olive Garden. All donors were acknowledged in the Trivia Night fundraiser.

New Business

- End of Year Picnic- Date to be determined. Last day of school is June 3. Food is usually from 12:30pm to 1:30pm. Julie noted we will need to reserve the park. Possibly June 1 at Hampe Park. Permit will be needed. Mike and Kim will get the permit. Will use Kim Lambert -Haak for information. Andy suggests checking for permit for first, second or third dates for availability.
- Kim Clark will ask the Mayor for water, and will get water for the 4th of July parade.
- Men of Note needed 11 pizzas for 60 kids, and probably needed 12 pizzas. 40 middle school and 20 high school. 5 sausage 3 pepperoni and 3 cheese. Suggest more pepperoni and cheese pizza for next year.

- Kim Clark needs small amount for uniform supplies for garment bags, hangers, hem tape, nylons and black socks for band and concerts. Will count as an operating expense, and Kim Clark will buy.
- Andy Kanturek suggested buying front sax stands instead of music stands for jazz band. Lauren Whisnant said the idea is noted.
- Will need money for the award plaques which will come out of the budget.
